

2010 SUMMER CAMP

CAMP DIRECTOR

For Tom Leonard, tennis is both a career and way of life. As a junior, he played regularly in intermountain sectional tournaments, then became the #1 singles and doubles player at the University of Idaho. In association with tennis great Don Budge, he gained a wealth of experience working with junior players of all abilities, from beginners to those holding national rankings. He has been a teaching pro for 34 years.

Since joining the FRC Pro Staff in 1978, Tom has put every element of his resume and record to the teaching test with remarkable success.
